Is Mr. Seward's Policy at Variance with the Monroe Doctrine?

THE Democratic journals are employing that time which was formerly occupied with searching the Constitution to discover the illegality of all the actions of the Administration, with reading up musty documents and quoting from lorgotten State papers, to prove that the Monroe doctrine actually existed, and that It was and is a political principle in our national affairs. They make extracts from JEFFERson, Madison, and Calhoun, to prove that they favored the supremacy of republican institutions on this continent. They exhume forgotten letters, and level the battery of precedent against the course Secretary SEWARD in regard to the continuance of a monarchy in Mexico. The World and Express make eloquent extracts from the fathers of our system, to show their advocacy of a united and free continent. We find that Mr. JEFFERSON, in 1808, says:-

"We consider their interests and ours as the same, and that the object of both must be to exclude all European influence from this hemisphere. We wish to avoid the necessity of going to war, till our revenue shall be entirely liberated from debt. Then it will suffice for war, without creating new debts or taxes."

And in 1823:-"Our first and fundamental maxim should be, never to entangle ourselves in the broils of Europe. Our second, never to suffer Europe to intermeddle with cis-Atlantic affairs. America, North and South, has a set of interests distinct from those of Europe, and peculiarly her own. She should therefore have a system of her own, separate and apart from that of Europe."

Such are fair samples of the quotations which fill two columns and a half of the World, and are being republished bodily in all the Democratic organs from Maine to Minnesota. There is nothing more improving to the style or more ennobling to the political tone of a paper than to refer to the utterances of statesmen, now passed from our midst, who are universally esteemed as patriotic, and without doubt the friends of the Monroe doctrine, conclusively proving that MONBOE, JEFFERSON, and CALHOUN, all held the same opinions as themselves in regard to the toleration of a monarchy in America. We freely grant that this fully establishes this interesting coincidence in sentiment, but what is their object in laying down this proposition? We all know before they commenced that the Monroe doctrine was supported by the fathers of that it is similarly received by all the people of America to day, always excepting an ex-Governor of Ohio. The object the Democracy have in view is evidently exhibited in the declaration that "the columns of the Times faithfully reflect the insidious policy of Mr. SEWARD. Its purpose is to circumvent the popular determination, which it dares not meet, by pretending that the Empire will crumble to pieces of itself, and thus staying off action till the lapse of time shall have given the new Government a prescriptive right to continuance. It is by this sort of 'masterly inactivity' that Mr. SEWARD intended to give and, had President Lincoln lived, would have given stability to the French-Austrian throne."

The aim, therefore, of this exhuming of the Madison papers, and quotations from JEF-FERSON'S life, is to prove that Mr. SEWARD is violating the fundamental principle of our Government in not going to war with France in order to drive MAXIMILIAN out of Mexico The design is to create a belief that the policy of the Secretary is one to which all our traditions and prejudices are opposed, one which would be injurious to the nation, and render most unpopular the Administration of which he is a member. The question pertinently suggests itself, "Is Mr. SEWARD's course of conduct at variance with the Monroe doctrine?" The Democracy say it is: we maintain, on the contrary, it is only an enunciation of that grand principle, but so toned down by discretion as to conserve the national good, yet maintain the maxim which has been officially affirmed since the opening of the century. The very extract from JBF-FERSON which the World quotes, is a direct compliment to Mr. SEWARD'S diplomacy. He says in 1808, distinctly, that "we want to avoid the necessity of going to war until our revenue is entirely liberated from debt;" and the necessity was avoided by just such a line of diplomacy as the Secretary of State is adopting to-day. We had no war in 1808, or for years afterwards; the doctrine of "America for Americans" was only a theory until the commencement of Mr. MONBOE'S Administration, ten years after the date of Mr. JEFFERSON's quoted letter. The United States, therefore, from motives of policy, refrained from enunciating the doctrine for a whole decade, because they had a debt, a tax on their resources. And yet the World quotes JEFFERSON to show that Mr. SEWARD is derelict in his duty, false to his country, and recreant to our doctrines, becaue within ten months after the conclusion of a civil war, wilh a debt of over ten times that of Jefferson's time, he does not fatally in a few hours.

immediately precipitate our land into a war with a mighty foreign power, backed up by the sympathies of England and Spain. And this is violating the Monroe doctrine! This is falsity to the traditions of our people!

It was just such taunts as the Democracy are uttering to-day that would have plunged our country, yet enfeebled, into a war in the dawn or the nineteenth century, and it was just such "masterly inactivity" as the World sneers at that saved us then and will save us now. The statesmen of that day stood unmoved, and we are thankful that we have a statesman now who will do likewise. It was the patriotism, wisdom, and skill of JAY, Madison, Jefferson, and their compeers that saved us then. It is the genius and fidelity of SEWARD that will carry us safe through now. The mind is as powerful as the sword if it has but a free scope for its skill, and diplomacy will yet avert many of those evils which are irremediable if we once enter upon a war. We, therefore, trust in Mr. SEWARD, confident that his skill will enable him, and his patriotism induce him, to mould all his policy so that the best interests of our country be advanced, and our principles acknowleged without a reference to the fell arbitration of war. When all arguments have failed, it is not too late to appeal to force; until then, let reason govern rashness, and diplomatic skill do all it can to preserve our national power, yet spare our national blood.

New Jersey Redeemed.

THE two Houses of the New Jersey Legislature organized yesterday, and we are gratifled to announce that solid trustworthy Union men have been chosen to fill the various positions. Hon. JAMES M. SCOVEL has been selected to preside over the deliberations of the Senate. Mr. Scovel has made his mark in politics, and during our great war was one of the most ardent supporters of the Administration, and both by tongue and pen labored earnestly in the good cause. He deserves the honors which are being bestowed upon him. All the officers elected are unquestionably loyal, and we may indulge the hope that New Jersey has seen the error of her ways, and having found the good old way intends to walk therein. The Governor's Message is a model State paper-brief, and directly to the point. The finances of the State are in a good condition. The war debt is comparatively small, and will be reduced rapidly by incoming receipts. We congratulate our neighboring State upon being relieved from the odium of questionable loyalty, and trust that it will no more bow the knee to the Baal of Southern slaveocracy.

OBITUARY.-ELIJAH F. PURDY, one of the representative men of the New York Democracy, has recently died, and his funeral occurs to-day. Mr. PURDY was the head and front of Tammany, and for years past has controlled the operations of that influential political body. It is but justice to his memory to say that, outside of his political chicanery, he was a model man-unselfish in his nature, and devoted to the interests of the city in which he resided. He was deeply interested in every benevolent object of New York, and his death will be a loss to the poor of that the Constitution, as we know equally well | city. Mr. PURDY has held a number of prominent offices, the duties of which he has always discharged most satisfactorily. His most bitter opponents never questioned his honesty and integrity. During a long political career he has succeeded in retaining the respect and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. He was an ardent supporter of the national cause during our late war, and devoted much of his time and means in alleviating the sufferings of our soldiers in the field as well as to caring for their families at home. By his charities he has endeared himself to many who will ever keep his memory green.

The American Stage.

This is the title of an exhaustive, well-written, interesting, and correct history of the origin, rise, and progress of the drama in this country, by Colonel T. Allston Brown, editor of the New York Clipper. This work has been for years in preparation, and will soon be placed in the hands of a well-known firm for publication.

PRESS CLUB LECTURES .- The ninth lecture of the brilliant course before the Press Club of Philadelphia will be delivered to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at the Musical Fund Hall, by the Hon. S. S. Cox, late M. C. from Ohio. Mr. Cox has taken for his subject "Irish Wit and Humor," and as he is one of the most accomplished speakers in this country, he will doubtless handle the matter to the satisfaction of his audience. -The Mississippi and Missouri Railroad has reduced its rates for shipping grain ten cents per hundred-weight.

-The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has determined that the tax on cotton shall be collected at its place of destination, as best for the interests of commerce.

—General G. G. Cushman, living near Bangor, Me., lost his house by fire a year ago, and the rest of his buildings were burned on Tuesday -A large number of volunteer medical officer were mustered out of service on Saturday. Of 240 medical officers in the service in May last, only about 60 now remain. —A turkey, raised by Mrs. Nancy Lounsbury, on Hubbard's Hill, Stamford, Coun., weighed forty-seven pounds six ounces, brought $25, and was sent to President Johnson as a New

The Stock Market opened dull this morning. there being very little disposition to operate, but prices are steady. Government bonds continue very quiet, with sales of new 5-20s at 102, and 7:30s at 982. 104 was bid for 6s of 1891, interest off; 1031 for old 5-20s; and 921 for 10-40s. City loans are less active and rather lower, with sales of the new issue at 91@92, the former rate a decline of 1.

Railroad shares are the most active on the list, with sales of Reading at 51@511; Catawissa preferred at 42@44, the latter rate an advance of 2; Philadelphia and Eric at 293@30; and North Pennsylvania at 30; 125; was bid for Camden and Amboy; 564 for Pennsylvania Railroad; 29 for Little Schuylkill; 534 for Norristown; 54 for Minehill; 614 for Lehigh Valley; and 44 (for Northern Central.

-The receipts of the Government from internal revenue during the past week reached nearly ten million dollars, making the total income of National Treasury from this source since July 1, 1865, the commencement of the current fiscal year, something over $185,040,000, or a weekly average of nearly seven million dollars, equal to a yearly aggregate of $354,000,000. The Washington Chronicle, noticing the heavy receipts last week, says:—"The receipts from internal revenue during the past week have amounted to the enormous sum of nearly $10,000,000. This increase over the exhibit of the previous week-$4,679,796*63-is owing to the energy with which the officers of the bureau have prosecuted their duties in discovering acticles which have hitherto escaped taxation. One of the greatest successes of the revenue is cotton. The tax paid on this commodity Macon, Ga., during the last three months, amounted to $450,000—representing a sale and shipment of 50,000 bates, valued at $13,000,000 in New York. It is expected that, for the months of January, February, and March, the revenue from the same source at the same place will reach more than $5,000,000."

PHILAD'A GOLD EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS,

HARPER, DURNEY & Co. quote as follows :-McKillips & Co., No. 30 S. Third street, quote as more call loans offered than for some time, at 6@7 per cent. There is no better demand for commercial paper, and long engagements are not in favor. Best names are quoted at 7@9 per cent., and second-class at 10@15 per cent. Money lenders are watching the action of Congress closely, and prefer to keep their resources within easy reach." -The Chicago Tribune says:"The complaints of a scarcity of currency are increasing, and several of our leading banks to-day had to refuse accommodations to some of their best customers. It was expected by many that as soon as the packing season fairly opened money would be plentier than formerly, but thus far the orders from the East have been very light, and the product has to be carried with city capital. The receipts of hogs to-day were upwards of 20,000. The money for these hogs goes West daily to make further purchases, and if they continue to come in thus heavily, without a corresponding export of product eastward, our market will very speedily be drained of money. The rate of discount at the banks remains steady at 10 per cent. per annum; street rates are firm at 2 per cent. per month."

—The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that canal boats duly enrolled and licensed and the tonnage tax paid thereon are not liable to the internal revenue tax; also, that "cars or crates, wagons, sleighs, or other vehicles coming into the United States from a contiguous foreign country, loaded with barrels, pipes, or hogs-heads, or other casks, filled with flour or grain of any kind, and so packed as to be satisfac-torily probed, may be inspected without being —The cash balance in the hands of the Assistant Treasurer in Boston at the close of business lanuary 6, was $2,600,048.

Philadelphia Trade Report.

WEDNESDAY, January 10 -in the Flour Market we have to report continued dulness, but ino change n prices. The stock here only reaches about 110,000 barrels, and is gradual y becoming reduced. Of this amount the supply of Winter Wheat is relatively small, and this description is held firmly. There is no shipping demand, and the sales are confined to the wants of the home trade, at $7 25@7.75 for superfine; $8.00@9 00 for extras; $9.00@9 50 for North western extra family; $10 00@11 00 for Pennsylvania and Ohie do. do ; and $11 25@13-50 for fancy brands, according to quality. Nothing doing in Rye Fiour Corn Meal.

There is no essential change to notice in the Wheat Market, and the only sales reported were in small iots at $2.25@3 45 for red, and $2.50@2.75 for white. Rye is stendy at 95c @81.05 for Southern and Pennsylvania. Coin continues scarce, and is in fair demand, with sales of 2000 bushels rellow at 85 conts in the cars and in sore. Oats are quiet but steady at 51@52 cents per bushel. 4000 bushels Canada East Barly sold at $1 10.

Cloverseed is in better demand, with small sales at 57.2503 per bushel, the taxter figure for prime. Fimothy is dull, and prices are nominal. Flaxseed comes forward slowly, and is in tair demand small saves at $3.15. No 1 Quarctiron Bark is dull, but prices are steady at $52 50 per ton for No. 1.

No. 482 CHESNUT STREET. SECOND STORY.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Directors of the FRANKLIN SILVER MINING COMPANY invite investments in no doubtful enterprise. They have secured two mines or ascertained richness, in Big Creek Mining District, Lander county, Nevada, situated but one and a half miles from Canton City, and about ten miles from Austin. Their ledges are of great width, rich in surface indications, and at a depth of only sixty feet, the continuation of their property, yielded ore that paid $215 per ton, worked by the rudest method.

For one-half interest in a location adjoining the "CUSTOM-HOUSE" LEDGE, upon the same voin of ore, an offer of $150,000 in coin was refused. This "CUSTOM-HOUSE" LEDGE, of which 2000 feet belongs to this Company, is exceeding y rich, and so located that a tunnel 200 feet in length will strike the ledge at a depth of 200 feet below its outcrop. Longer tunnels will strike the ledge at proportionately greater depths.

Work upon this tunnel is being prosecuted with the utmost vigor. It can be continued all winter. and rich "pay-rock" will be ready at an early day for reduction at the mills, already located at a short distance, and favorable arrangements are already made for crushing the ores of the Company until such time as their own works are erected.

The "PRICE CURRENT" Ledge of 2000 feet in length is located on the opposite side of the same Uanon as the ledge already described. It is about eight feet in width, with well-defined casings, crops out nearly its whole length, and crossing the summit of the ridge which divides Perkins' Canon from Brooks' Canon, it presents favorable conditions for development from either valley. A suitable description of these properties cannot se given in a few words; full information may be obtained at the office of the Company. The advantages of a cho'ce among many good locations have been secured by the personal inspection of a representative of the Company, of practical mining experience. From his detailed reports, the Company are assured of the great value and richness of their property, and arrangements are made for prosecuting the business with vigor, economy, and despatch. Twenty-five thousand shares of the stock of the Company will be sold on account of Working Capital. No other stock is offered for sale. Subscription Books will open January 15, at the Office, No. 432 CHESNUT Street (up stairs).
